Elbrus Coding Bootcamp

Fullstack JavaScript developer

Interned as a fullstack developer at Elbrus Coding Bootcamp.

Performed custom and personal projects, both as a team and individually.

Projects:

1. meTime. Team project. Source code: (<https://github.com/Tokhirbek-creator/MeTime-Back>)
Social web application for communication and dating. The Russian analogue of Twitter.
The project was completed in 10 days. Completed more than planned.

Project stack: React, Redux, Axios, Node.js, Express, MySQL, Sequelize ORM, Cloudinary - cloud storage to store media files, etc.

- Managed the project as a team leader and developer (a team of four).
- Developed the architecture of application on <https://app.diagrams.net/>.
- Configured back-end and prescribed endpoint according to REST API, authorization, sessions, jsonwebtoken.
- Worked on styling the project.

2. Spotify. Custom project. Source code: (<https://github.com/Tokhirbek-creator/spotify>)
This project was made in 3 days.
Web-application for listening to music, which connects to Spotify API.

Project stack: SpotifyWebApi, React, Node.js, Bootstrap, react-bootstrap, Express, Axios, etc.

- Created an app on <https://developer.spotify.com/> to then connect via Spotify API to my app.
- Developed a login route to the Spotify server via tokens, using spotify-web-api.
- Developed the frontend and backend of the app. Set up the connections.
- Connected lyrics and music player via spotify-web-playback library.

Completed another 10+ mini-projects in addition to the above, which can be expanded further. Studied new technologies (React, Redux, Heroku, Vercel, Cloudinary, Node.js, Linux, Express, PostgreSQL, MongoDB, MySQL), improved programming skills, communication skills with colleagues, learned to work with a lot of information in a short time.
